Guideline/Instruction for the Authors

TAWARIKH will provide a peer-reviewed forum for the publication of thought-leadership articles, briefings, discussion, applied research, case and comparative studies, expert comment and analysis on the key issues surrounding the history education and historical studies, and its various aspects. Analysis will be practical and rigorous in nature.

Prospective authors must adhere to the following guidelines: (1) article length is 10 pages minimum and 20 pages maximum, including bibliography and appendices; (2) abstract and its key words are included; (3) the article may be written by three persons maximum; and (4) attach a bio mentioning author’s current profession, newest photograph, and postal and e-mail addresses.

The article should follow the outline:

Title (brief, clear, and interesting)

Name of author

Abstract

Introduction

Methods

Findings and Discussion

Sub title

Sub title

Sub title (adjusted as needed)

Conclusion (including the recommendation)

References (contains literature cited in the text)

Citation takes the following form: “...” (Moriyama, 2010:17). Bibliography from books, journals, and unpublished sources should be written in the following form, respectively:

Internet and interview sources should include place and date of access and interview, as follows:

Interview with Aki Muhiddin, a master of Sundanese self-defense arts, in Bandung, Indonesia, on July 17, 2014.

The article should be sent at least 3 (three) months prior to the publication months (April and October) addressed to the editor of TAWARIKH: International Journal for Historical Studies. It is recommended that the articles should be sent via e-mail. E-mail addresses that can be contacted are: tawarikh.journal2009@gmail.com and suciandi@upi.edu

Information on the article’s possible publication will be sent via e-mail. The TAWARIKH is an international scholarly journal, especially for scholars of Southeast Asian countries and generally for around the world. Published articles in an online version are free, but if the authors want to get the journal prints, he/she will be required to contribute a journal fee for editing, printing, and shipping costs in which its amount will be determined later by the editor.

About published articles, all authors’ name, photographs, abstracts, and full texts in PDF will be displayed in the journal website at: www.mindamas-journals.com/index.php/tawarikh

Unpublished articles will not be returned, except on written requests from the authors.

Articles in the TAWARIKH: International Journal for Historical Studies do not necessarily represent the views of the Editor or Editorial Committee. The Editor is responsible for the final selection of the content in the TAWARIKH journal and reserve the right to reject any material deemed inappropriate for publication. Responsibility for opinions expressed and for the accuracy of facts published in the TAWARIKH journal rests solely with the individual authors.
